

The NAB needs to be stopped on the satellite radio local content issue. Competition is what makes this nation great, and bullying and lobbying by people who can't or won't compete (NAB) to force the stifling of innovation and competition is not what we are about. I want choice in the marketplace. NAB is trying to take that choice away to protect its own interests.